New Easter Suits Are Out.

They're the snappiest ones you'll see and the best. Every idea that has been brought out to give clothes style, neatness and distinction has been faithfully worked in the Mayer Sheur Offner Sterling Way.

Coats are shaped the least bit to the natural lines of the figure to give them grace and are just long enough to be smart and genteel. Single and double breasted, two and three piece suits as you like. Trousers are made medium and full peg top neither too loose or too tight. Medium and tropical weights in the neatest of stripes, checks, mixtures and blue serges.

We stamp our name on the inside coat pocket as guarantee that these clothes are right for style and wear.

CENTRAL RECORD

ISSUED WEEKLY. $1.00 A YEAR.

LOUIS LANDRAM, Edt.-Publ.

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

Member Ky. Press Association.

Lancaster, Ky., April 3, 1908.

In discussing the value and influence of newspapers and the duty they owe the public, W J Bryan was prompted to remark: "This is the greatest country in the world for newspapers. I believe with Jefferson that a news paper is essential in molding public opinion. Of our newspapers I regard the smaller ones as the larger ones. The big newspaper is a business enterprise and so valuable a business position that only those can own it who are well off, and, as a rule, the man who has the business ability to control money large enough hasn't the training of an editor and has to hire people to write editorials for him. The editor who has kept himself alert with what is going on is so busy that he doesn't accumulate money. Great city newspapers are owned by some and edited by others. The man who is not permitted to put his conscience in every line that is written is not the ideal editor. I believe that the ideal editor is the editor who owns his own paper and says what he himself believes."

There are a good many persons who hold that there is no necessity for the government to keep an immense sum hoarded in the strong box of the nation. These advocates of modification of the monetary system of the country contend, and not without a good show of reason, that it were far better to have the money in circulation doing the work that belongs to the currency than to be tied up. Money is a valuable vehicle of exchange it is of no service except when in use. A valuable wagon is of no practical worth when standing idle in the shed. Only when in actual service is it worth anything.

Texas is attracting an unusual amount of emigration. People from nearly every state are flocking to that great commonwealth, an empire in itself. Kentucky is furnishing many families to the crowds that in the course of a score of years will make Texas the leading State in point of population and eventually in wealth. It is a question if there will not be by and a sentiment spring up to divide the State. It is almost too huge to be convenient for State purposes.

The individual seeking an opportunity to do a philanthropic act as a rule need not go far from home to find the chance to do the deed. This thing of bewailing the fate of the heathen is a lot of nonsense when one need not go beyond the confines of his own community to find ample room to exercise his benevolent spirit.

Spring fever is an insidious disease; it creeps up on its victim in a manner not to be withstood. It makes a lot of loafers and nothing short of the most heroic treatment will eradicate it from the system. Physical exercise of a violent nature is about the only remedy that can cure the malady.

There is just a little too much of the insanity racket worked when some brute in human disguise kills a fellow being. No doubt if the fellow who commits murder were assured that he would spend the remainder of his life in close confinement he would not have fits of insanity.

The Democrats and Republicans are met on common ground when it comes to desire to hold office. Both parties agree that the pie counter is a place of contentment and happiness to those who get a whack at the loaves and other official food set out.

A Chicago woman is suing for a divorce on the grounds that her husband has been drunk 3,000 times in ten years. She must have kept account of the times he was sober—less book-keeping. Wonder why he did not make it unanimous.

A Chicago man is said to have proposed 365 times to the same girl before he was accepted. If he had proposed to that many different girls there would be something to talk about.

A soft answer may turn away wrath. The trouble with most persons grows out of the fact that they forget to turn on the soft pedal at the right moment.

If the letter that never came was anonymous, it was all right.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm hearted wish of the writer to be of use to some one else. This remedy is for sale by F P Frisbie. Im

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P Morris, of Skipper, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at McRoberts drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Im

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

Mr Thos. Stenton, postmaster of Pontypool, Ont., writes: "For the past eight years I suffered from rheumatic pains, and during that time I used many different liniments and remedies for the cure of rheumatism. Last summer I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and got more relief from it than anything I have ever used, and cheerfully recommend this liniment to all sufferers from rheumatic pains." How to Get What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr C Fathing, of Mill Creek, Ind., Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at McRoberts drug store. 50c. Im

PAINT LICK.

Born, to the wife of J M Metcalf, a fine boy.

Mrs R N Beazley who has been sick for quite a while is improving very fast.

Dr W L Carman has returned from a pleasant visit to his parents who live in Ohio.

Miss Stella, Mayme and Lula Whorter, of Manse have been in Danville doing their spring shopping.

Miss Louise Terry has returned from a visit to Lexington and on her return home she was accompanied by Rev W McCullum.

Mrs A B Ely and Mrs G A Ballard had their millinery opening Saturday and there was a large crowd called to see their beautiful spring goods.

Paint Lick is going to have water works in a short time. The plant will be put in at the corner of the pike bridge, so the town is on a boom.

Mr Ide Austin and family have moved to Richmond. Mrs Austin will be greatly missed by the people here, for she was a great church worker.

Mrs Lena Dunn and sister Miss Jenie Totten who have been visiting their brother Mr L T Totten and family, of Stanford, have returned home.

Miss Margaret Noland from near Richmond was the beautiful and attractive guest of her sister Miss Marion Noland who is teaching the spring school here.

There was a very dangerous accident happened to Curry Rice, the son of Mr G W Rice. Friday afternoon, a gas tank bursted and Curry being near it got his limb broken. Dr Carman and Dr Kinnaird set it and he is improving slowly.

Willie Hudson who has been living in the west has returned with his family.

Miss Margaret Robinson has returned from an extended visit to relatives in Lexington.

Mrs Cecil, of Wilmore, has been spending a few days with her mother Mrs Elizabeth Lane.

Mr Bruce Swope has rented property from Sid Poor and moved his family here from Wilmore.

Luther Evans, who attends school at Danville, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

A J Christopher and brother, of Somerset, spent Sunday with their mother who continues ill.

Mr and Mrs Hirman Barnett are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter, christened Alice.

Mr Will Baker and wife, of Versailles, have been the guests of Mrs Baker's parents, Mr and Mrs J B Robins.

Mr J W Askins vouches for the following incident. Several days ago, something came to his hen roost, killed and partially devoured a hen. Supposing the thief to be around the next night, he set four steel traps, securely fastening three of them. That night the marauder returned and carried away with him one of the steel traps. Just eight days from the time the trap was taken, an owl returned to the house with the missing trap hanging to its foot. He was accommodating to return the trap, but for this kindness he forfeited his life.

Chamberlain's Has the Preference.

Mr Fred C Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it for the preference."

Weather prognosis we will have more cold weather yet. Better not shied 'em for a while.

Remember that the public is invited to attend the convention of the C. W. B. M. and Sunday Schools to be held at Christian church April 21st and 22nd.

The children taking part in the Easter Cantata will please meet in the Sunday School room of the Christian church Friday afternoon, immediately after school closes.

The colored Knights of Pythias turned out for their annual sermon Sunday and presented a very creditable appearance. The Uniform rank is supplied with complete uniforms.

The girls were out in force to see the display of millinery Saturday. The day being an exceedingly windy one, the display of hose was also enjoyable, but not to the fair women.

Ever notice the fellow who buys a new rake or hoe and carries it on his shoulder around the Public Square during busiest time in the day? Dollars to doughnuts that man's wife works the garden.

Only Twelve Indictments.

The grand jury returned only twelve indictments, and these were for minor offenses. This speaks mighty well for our county, and goes to prove that this paper has always said—that Garrard is the best county on the map.

Locates in Lancaster.

Dr. M. B. White, veterinary surgeon, formerly of Harrodsburg, has located in Lancaster and will have his headquarters at Arnold's livery stable. He has rented a dwelling and will bring his family to Lancaster. Dr. White is an expert at curing all diseases in animals.

Opening Friday and Saturday.

Miss Bella Arnold invites the ladies to see her elegant lines of handsome Spring and Summer millinery, at Crab Orchard. Opening Friday and Saturday, the 3rd and 4th. Miss Arnold has everything in up-to-date Millinery and can please the most fastidious. A call and inspection will be appreciated.

Didn't Happen in Lancaster.

At a recent home wedding, not a thousand miles away, when the ceremony was over and the party had ascended the stairway and were hurriedly preparing to leave on the trip, the groom asked his best man, "Have you kissed the bride?" Imagine the silence when the best man unthoughtedly replied, "No, not lately."

Stores Will Close.

The dry goods and clothing merchants have entered into an agreement to close their stores every evening except Saturday at half past six o'clock. The plan was commenced April 1st, and is certainly a good one, as it is not only expensive to keep open until nine or ten o'clock, but works a great hardship on both proprietor and clerks. This agreement will be carried out during the summer months.

Colored School Closes.

The colored school closed with entertainments and graduation exercises at court house Saturday and Monday nights. The school, under Prof F. M. Woods, has been successful in every way, there has been no complaint from any source. He is well-educated and, by his gentlemanly deportment in Lancaster, has won the respect of our citizens—both white and colored. The Lancaster school would make no mistake in retaining him for next session.

A Worthy Promotion.

The legion of friends of Mr Paul Miller, here in his old home, will be delighted to know that he has just been promoted to the rank of Ensign, in the U.S. Navy. The young gentleman graduated only a few years ago, and his promotion is deserved and has been rapid. He is a splendid young gentleman and is well-liked by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. He is the son of Col Jno W. Miller, of this city. He has been on duty with the fleet in the Philippines for some time.

Garrard Young Lady Ahead.

The Lexington Herald will send a number of young ladies to Atlantic City on a most pleasant excursion this summer. The state has been divided into districts and Garrard county is one composed of Garrard, Mercer, Jessamine, Madison, Pulaski. Miss Lillian Leavell, of Bryantsville is among the contestants, and has been ahead several times. If you are a subscriber for the Herald, clip your coupon and send to her, or, if you do not take the paper, and are interested, write to Miss Leavell at Bryantsville, and she will send you full particulars.

Finding Homes for Children

Two representatives from the Kentucky Childrens Home Society, have been in town since Monday with some children from that home. They are desirous of finding good homes for these little ones where they will be raised up as one of the family and sent to school and church. The children do not have to be adopted into the homes unless so desired by the parties taking them. They have placed 6 out of the eleven and would like to place the rest among the good people of the county. Those left are girls from 2 to 10 years old. Go and see them at the Guley House. The representatives are L. S. Harvin and Mrs. J. M. Simpson, District Superintendent.

The W. C. T. U.

This W. C. T. U. were delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Rebecca West. Elegant refreshments were served and there was a good time socially. Mrs. Fannie Farra was elected president to fill out Mrs. Burnett's unexpired term. Miss Amanda Anderson was elected Recording Corresponding Secretary. A Mother's meeting was appointed for this Saturday to which all mothers are cordially invited.

Shuts Out Keg Business.

One of the laws passed by the recent legislature was that by which the purchase of liquor dealer. Under present law, distillers can sell to anyone in local option districts, but not less than five gallons. In this manner, it has been the custom of several to "chip in" send for the five gallons and then divide up. The new shuts out this as none can buy the liquor unless he has a license to retail, which, of course, can not be obtained in local option counties. Senator George T. Farris, who, by the way, is the best worker the temperance people have in the state, managed the bill and secured its passage.

Garrard at Exposition.

In the report of the Commissioners of the Jamestown Exposition, just issued, Garrard county is referred to as follows: "Garrard county furnished the unique distinction of having as a citizen the man who made the first contribution of the Kentucky exhibit fund. This was Mr Joseph R. Mount, of Garrard, who contributed to the fund immediately when the subject of Kentucky's participation was first mentioned. The county had sphalerite, barites, flourspar and fine stone exhibits in the mineral display." The report is compiled by C. C. Ousley, and is handsomely gotten up.

Shows Law to Publishers.

The Third Assistant Post Master General has sent to every publisher a copy of the new law in regard to sending papers to parties who have not paid subscriptions. While we do not agree with him as to the right of a publisher to send the paper to anyone, yet to do so is a violation of the law regarding second-class matter. As he has the last say, we must dance when he fiddles. Our lists are pretty well cleaned up, but will be gone over again this week. If you are in arrears don't blame this office if you cease to receive The Record. Look at your label on your paper and see if it reads correctly, and notify us if it is not correct.

W. H. M. S.

The second Sunday in this month, Miss Durham, president of the Womans Home Missionary Society of Kentucky, will give an address on Missions, and on evening of same day Mrs Ed Grubbs of Winchester, president of the Womans Missionary Society will give an address on same subject. The meetings will be held in the Lancaster Methodist church, and The Record is asked to say that every one is most cordially invited to attend both lectures. These ladies are doing much good, and the people should show appreciation of their services devoted to the noble cause by attending the meeting. A special invitation is extended to sisters societies. Mrs J. H. Williams, President local society.

Grand Display.

The weather was very disagreeable Saturday, but many ladies braved the wind and rain to see the displays of millinery at the up-to-date establishments of Mrs. Alex. Walker, Mrs. Ada. Kinnaird and R. S. Brown. The patterns were all of the very latest, stylish and, as was said by all, the most elegant ever shown in Lancaster. The local milliners have brought on a much larger stock this season than ever before, and everything to be found in high-class millinery stores can be had right here in Lancaster, and there is no excuse at all for indulging in the foolish practice of former years of rushing off to the cities and paying double price for what can be had right here at home. The goods are selling rapidly, and our advice is to call and make your selections early.

Set Day and Clean Up.

The habit that some persons have of dumping all manner of trash and refuse in back yard or alley is not only an untidy habit, but one that tends to breed all manner of disease germs. It would be a very good thing if every person would set aside a day for a general clean up of surroundings. If the same day could be selected and made a sort of municipal holiday much good would follow. Suppose that next Saturday, the 11th were decided upon as the day for a general clean up, the city would present a much improved condition both as to appearance and healthfulness. Have the old tin cans, shoes and other rubbish carried away and have the city put on a sort of new and clean spring attire and then note the difference in appearance. Really, the suggestion is not a bad one. Let every one who can possibly do so take a day off from the regular routine of business or labor and devote it to beautifying surroundings. It would be time well spent. If there be those who cannot take the time, there are others who are in need of a job who would be pleased to get the work. If you and your neighbor will agree to do this the trick will be turned and everybody will rejoice.

Obituary.

Our beloved aunt, Mrs. Sallie Austin, of Parksville, was brought to Lancaster and interred in Cemetery. She had been ill of consumption for quite a while. Mrs. Austin was forty-three years of age and joined the Baptist church when quite young. She lived a Christian life, and her constant prayer was that she be taken from her suffering, if it be the Lord's will. She has a wide circle of friends, mother, four brothers and two sisters who mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev J. H. Williams. ***

The Lexington Herald will send a number of young ladies to Atlantic City on a most pleasant excursion this summer. The state has been divided into districts and Garrard county is one composed of Garrard, Mercer, Jessamine, Madison, Pulaski. Miss Lillian Leavell, of Bryantsville is among the contestants, and has been ahead several times. If you are a subscriber for the Herald, clip your coupon and send to her, or, if you do not take the paper, and are interested, write to Miss Leavell at Bryantsville, and she will send you full particulars.

CHILDREN FREE. FIRST DAY.

Directors of the Lancaster Fair have decided to admit FREE all children under the age of 14 years on FIRST DAY of their Fair. Remember this and bring the children. There will be many amusements for them. Dates, July 29, 30, 31.

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

Bastin and Bell Telephone Companies have Made Arrangements Whereby Patrons Receive Benefit of Both Lines.

The public will receive with great delight the news of an agreement made between the Bastin Telephone Co. and the Bell lines whereby the companies work in conjunction to give their patrons the benefit of every point reached by a telephone line. Heretofore no connection could be had, and parties wanting to talk to towns where the local line had no office were compelled to go to the single booth at the hotel and probably have to wait an hour or so before the party wanted could be reached. On the other hand, business men were frequently compelled to leave their work and spend a lot of time waiting at the hotel. Under the present agreement, subscribers to the Bastin lines may put in a call for Richmond, Danville, in fact any point not formerly reached by the Bastin lines and can talk over their office or home phone. This is a great convenience, and the people owe Messrs. Bastin a vote of thanks for the enterprise shown in securing for them what few towns can boast of.

Eighteen Years Old.

With last issue, The Central Record rounded out its eighteenth year. For the past fourteen years of the time the present editor has been on the tripod. We have striven hard to encourage the upbuilding of Lancaster and, without any inclination to boast, will say that if all the type we have had set in this effort to promote improvements were placed in one straight line, it would belt the globe with enough left to encircle Kentucky. Our efforts have been to keep before the people those enterprises by which the town will be benefited, and the columns have always been open, free, for any contribution along this line. While what has been published for better things would fill columns, yet the contributed articles bear malice—those of viciousness and spite—which we have refused to print at any price would ill serve freight cars on the L and N. system. This may be putting the estimate high, but ask any editor and he will tell you of the great number of people who try to use the local paper as a broadsword behind which they can hide and throw brick-bats. It don't "go" in this office. Our columns have been absolutely free, to the churches church societies and W. C. T. U., for publication of any matter they desired. We refer to this only to let the ministers and good women know we are not only willing, but anxious to print any notices they want to bring before the people. We have a bona-fide circulation of 1,350 books open for inspection subscribers, and as experts figure that there are three readers for every newspaper printed you will see we have a pretty big audience to address. We appreciate any suggestions for the betterment of the Record, and stand ready to do all in our power for the advancement of any worthy cause. There is little money in newspaper business in Lancaster from the fact that some establishments send to the city for work that can be done right here and at reasonable prices. We have never begged anyone for work, but certainly appreciate any job given us. Thanking every patron for past favors, we begin another year with renewed energies to print the home news from all over Garrard county, and make the Central Record what a county paper really should be—a cosy corner for what is going on in the neighborhood, or like "a letter from home." We appreciate the assistance of our friends and patrons, and trust we have given them value received.

Austin.
